

Ready for Work Program

Course Code selected units from SIT20322

Certificate II in Hospitality

Set your path for employment or further education opportunities. Federation TAFE prides itself on offering a suite of education options. The Ready for Work Program creates pathways for students in education, employment and further training through the delivery of units from Australia wide recognised industry qualifications. This program is aimed at those who are looking at undertaking a suite of vocational units that enhance their resume and future employment prospects. The program focuses on personal effectiveness, work readiness and 'hands-on' project based learning. Students are encouraged to make decisions that will promote positive outcomes and options for their future.
